Regina girl, 17, missing in Boulderlands. A search is under way for a girl from Regina who has disappeared while on an expedition with her family in the Boulderlands. The girl, named only as Yeska, 17, reportedly vanished while on Mount Surimsi. The family was in a party of 12 Reginan trekkers scaling the 6.5 km mountain. They were on their way down when they noticed the girl and her 15-year-old brother were no longer with the group. The boy was found a few hours later.
